Dismantling, repetition and re-creation, dialogue with the present from a forward-looking perspective. 9 design masters teamed up with many famous design artists to jointly create 9 beautiful stone spaces, which are integrated into a 1600 square place. Beauty, tells the "natural story" from the commanding heights of design.

STONE DESIGN WEEK ✕ RONGSHE

Express the artistic conception of traditional culture with the help of fashion-forward design. With the theme of "Ode to Stone into Bamboo", the traditional stone is used as the carrier and the avant-garde design is used as the technique to present the space design and physical design.

A lot of white space is used to create a tough and capable bamboo garden stone landscape.
